

Minakshi Sinha

Dr. Minakshi Sinha born on 20th October, 1941, did her Ph.D. in Rabindra Prem Kabitay Tattwa (Philosophy in Love Poems of Rabindranath). She did her Masters from University of Calcutta; is now attached to P.G. section in Bengali as a guest lecturer in Bethune College, Sarojini Naidu College, Howrah Bijoy Krishna Girls College, IGNOU and Netaji Subhash Open University. A retired Redear and the Head of the Department Bengali, Hiralal Mazumdar College, Dakshineswar, Dr. Sinha served Rabindra Bharati University as a guest lecturer in Bengali for over than a decade. Dr. Sinha acted as a resource person in Tagore literature in Refresher Course of College teachers in Calcutta University, Rabindra Bharati University and Ranchi University. She has participated in UGC sponsored National and International Seminars as resource persons. Dr. Sinha visited Czechoslovakia as a part of Indian Delegates to participate in an educational seminar in 1987. Delivered lecture on Tagore's Gitanjali as guest speaker of Rabindra Academy Dhaka, Bangladesh in 2010. She is a regular contributor in literacy magazine in India and Bangladesh, has 20 published works to her credit. She is known for her dramatic performance in West Bengal and abroad, has performed in London and Dhaka. The renowned dramatic group "THEATRE" of Dhaka facilitated her for excellence in mono-acting in 2006. Moreover, Bangladesh "Bharat Maitree Samiti", Dhaka, Rabindra Academy and Uttara Sahitya Parishad, Dhaka, facilitated her for her academic and cultural contributions. She was awarded "ABP SANANDA NIHAR SUCHARU SAMMAN" for performing art in 2012. Also awarded "Banga Gaurav Ananya Samman" for Tagore studies by Reporter & Photographers Association in 2012. In 2018, she was awarded by the prestigious "Kadambini Ganguli Siver Medel" in Memory of the first women graduate of India as a distinguished Alumni of Bethune College. A student of legendry Suchitra Mitra, Minakshi's Passion is Rabindra Charcha and Theatre.