

Kumkum Chattopadhyay (1957-

Born on 29th October, 1957, Kumkum Chattopadhyay Passed H. S. from Bethune Collegiate School -- stood 5th in order of merit in Humanities, 1970, National Scholar, awarded Ph. D. Degree on 'Development Discourse: Contributions of Rabindranath Tagore. She served as Associate Professor, Bethune College -- 01.04.1982 -- 28.02.2014 and Presently Honourary Teacher -- Tagore Research Institute, Kolkata. She published eight number of books, two Short stories, three poems, four essays, three edited books, She Won prestigious Kadambini Ganguly Memorial Silver Medal for contributions in Education, Literature, Culture and Social Work and acting as a President, Bethune College Sammilani (Alumni Association). She also won Telegraph Salt Lake Super Souvenir Award for last nine years. she is an active social worker, one of the founder members and Vice President of Sukanta Pally Aponjon Welfare Society (Reg no. S0012238), which works especially for women empowerment and child education besides visiting old age homes and orphanages.