

Soumita Som, MA, BEd, is an accomplished educator, currently serving as a highly efficient teacher in a government-aided school. Beyond the classroom, she is a dedicated social worker, making significant contributions to the education sector. Soumita is a well-known performer, regularly appearing on television and radio, where her talents as a speaker and artist shine. She has received numerous awards for her excellence in debate and extempore competitions. As a celebrated stage drama artist, Soumita has captivated audiences both on stage and in cinema. Her powerful voice also makes her a popular reciter, further cementing her prominence in the performing arts.