

Sujata Sen

Professor Sujata Sen has served the Department of Sociology, University of Kalyani for more than 35 years since she joined the Institution in July, 1980. She kept herself busy as a guest faculty at various Institutions, like Presidency College, Presidency University, University of Calcutta, Rabindrabharati University, University of Burdwan, Vidyasagar University, West Bengal State University, IISER- Kolkata, from time to time, alongside her full-time service. She has been associated with different Universities in West Bengal in various capacities since her retirement. Sujata is an alumnae of Bethune School and College. She bagged the National Scholar certificate for her performance in Higher Secondary Examination. She obtained a first class and occupied 2nd position in her MA in Sociology from the University of Calcutta. She did her Ph.D on 'Women in Crime: A Study on Prison Inmates in West Bengal'. She contributed articles and chapters quite liberally to journals, periodicals and edited books.

Sujata is an ardent fan of Rabindrasangeet. She obtained first class Diploma in Rabindrasangeet from 'Rabitirtha' founded and directed by the prolific Rabindrasangeet vocalist Smt. Suchitra Mitra and occupied second position in the final Examination. She was also a recipient of first class Diploma (Sangeet Prabhakar) in connection with the Prayag Sangeet Samiti (Certificate Course).